

History Minor

For information, contact the Department of History, 254 Upham Hall, 513-529-5121.

The history minor is a flexible way to broaden one's understanding of the past, and to conduct historical research in a range of courses. It complements other majors well, and it prepares students for careers by sharpening analytical abilities and by sharpening a number of other transferable skills.

A minimum 2.00 GPA is required for all courses in the minor. These courses must be taken for a grade (not credit/no-credit).
