A Graduate Certificate in Russian, Eastern European and Eurasian Studies (REEES) allows graduate students to meet specialized and interdisciplinary educational goals, positioning them upon graduation to engage in professional opportunities that are not available without it. The REEES certificate enriches a graduate student's academic record and is a distinguished accomplishment that reflects advanced language ability and interdisciplinary study, increasing the marketability of graduate degrees upon their completion. Students who wish to earn the certificate are required to take the Havighurst Colloquium TWICE; it may be taken a third time with permission. Students must have 3 years of study (or the equivalent) in a language of the region; the language requirement cannot be counted toward the 15 hours. Other courses can be applied and may include:
