Cross-listed with IMS 392.

MKT 395. Strategic Thinking and Decision-Making in Marketing. (3)

Strong strategic thinking skills are needed to effectively set goals, analyze the marketing and external environment, anticipate the unexpected, and develop long-range plans. This course will enhance students' ability to think strategically, use creative thinking and processes to approach marketing problems and opportunities from multiple perspectives, employ strategic decision-making frameworks, tools, and capabilities to solve complex marketing challenges, and communicate strategic decisions and rationale to stakeholders.

Prerequisite: MKT 291, MKT 325, MKT 335.

MKT 404. Culturally Intelligent [CQ] Marketing. (3)

This course is designed to develop marketers who have the knowledge, perspectives, and skills to practice culturally intelligent (CQ) marketing in increasingly diverse and dynamic environments. Cultural Intelligence (CQ) is the ability to recognize and adapt to cultural differences, including differences across cultural identities. Students will learn the CQ MKT process and consider how the four dimensions of Cultural Intelligence, CQ DRIVE, CQ KNOWLEDGE, CQ STRATEGY, and CQ ACTION, can be activated in a marketing context to deliver marketing thought and practice that is adaptive, inclusive, and culturally aware.

Prerequisite: MKT 291.

MKT 412. Sustainable Marketing Management. (3)

The goal of this course is to provide an overview of the role of sustainability in marketing strategy. We use the triple bottom line perspective to cast sustainability as the simultaneous pursuit of financial, social/relational, and environmental performance. The course provides an assessment of current efforts to pursue sustainability with a primary focus on the interaction of the marketing organization with the environment. In the process, we investigate the interaction between consumption and the physical environment. We examine specific marketing tactics employed by firms seeking to maximize triple bottom line performance. We subsequently address consumption processes in the household, industrial, services, and transportation sectors of the economy.
Prerequisite: MKT 291.

MKT 415. Marketing to Organizations. (3)

Introduces the nature and functions of marketing between businesses and business/government in terms of structure, buyer behavior, processes, supply chain management, information flows and the marketing mix.
Prerequisite: MKT 291.

MKT 418. Social Media Marketing and Online Community Management. (3)

Traditional advertising and marketing models are being increasingly challenged by a world in which content creation, transmission, and aggregation are being decentralized. Markets are now conversations - some very short. Social media are living conversations that present marketers with the challenge of how to understand and participate in those conversations in an authentic and value-based manner. Moreover, these conversations don't happen in a vacuum. The connected nature of different social (and physical) relationships define a community of interest. The community manager uses this entire space to help bring value to this community. This class examines the variety and taxonomy of social media and the strategies and tactics associated with social media marketing and community management.
Cross-listed with IMS 418/IMS 518.

MKT 419/MKT 519. Digital Branding. (3)

Survey course emphasizing a hands-on immersion into ECommerce; studies the impact this technology has on the basics of the marketing mix and effective and efficient marketing strategies. Focuses on applications, innovations, and future direction (not on the technology that enables the Internet and www). Heavy reading, electronic and in-class discussions, and 'surfing' required. Recommended prerequisite: MKT 291.
Cross-listed with IMS.

MKT 425. Global Marketing. (3)

This course will provide students with an overview and understanding of global marketing. This involves an analysis of world markets, their respective consumers and environments, and the marketing management required to meet the demands of constantly changing foreign markets.
Prerequisite: MKT 291.

MKT 442. Highwire Brand Studio. (4-8)

MKT 618. Marketing Management. (3)

Focuses on business's front lines; the value creation from which all economic activity derives. Address how sellers identify, manage, and meet customer needs and wants through concepts, heuristics, models, and frameworks that help stimulate and manage customer-centric organizations. Leverage a mix of current readings and case analyses to bring cutting edge thinking and applications to life.

MKT 622. Creativity, Innovation & Problem Solving in Marketing. (3)

Participants will learn to meet the demand for rapid, creative solutions to ever-changing business challenges. Addresses creativity stimulation within both individuals and teams by building a toolbox of techniques that participants apply to problems commonly arising in marketing and business. Included are topics such as (1) problem definition (e.g., too narrow vs. too broad), (2) the need for multiple perspectives (e.g., core competency vs. core rigidity), (3) methods for stimulating idea generation (e.g., empathic design), and methods for evaluating ideas and their potential profitability (e.g., conjoint).
Prerequisite: MKT 618.

MKT 632. Information Network Marketing. (3)

This course surveys the digital marketing landscape including its fringes, examining opportunities and threats driven by advances on the network frontier. The student will develop a set of critical skills so that she/he is better able to evaluate and find opportunity when presented with new technologies throughout their career. Understanding how to approach these advances is a critical skill for a marketer in today's environment.

Prerequisites: MKT 618 and ISA 621.

MKT 633. Digital Marketing. (1)

Students will gain hands-on experience managing an actual digital marketing campaign for a real client. This will include creating, executing and optimizing a campaign on a live advertising platform. Over the course of the campaign, students will develop an understanding of online consumer behavior, real-time marketing, online brand building, and social media strategy. Deliverables will include a pre-campaign strategy brief and a post-campaign analysis.

Prerequisite: MKT 618.
