

Leadership Certificate

For more information, contact the Lilly Leadership Institute:
bohonf@miamioh.edu or 513-529-0342.

Website: <https://miamioh.edu/cec/about/centers-institutes/leadership-institute/>.

The Leadership Certificate is a rigorous, cumulative, cohort-based, three-year leadership development program for undergraduate students. Students focus on personal leadership, people leadership, and strategic leadership. During this program, students are exposed to seasoned leaders from business and industry and create their own personal development plans. The Leadership Institute program is a platform for cultivating future leaders who will develop resiliency, inner strength, strategic thinking and collaborative spirit. Admission to the program is selective based on student application.

Program Requirements

(minimum 12 semester hours)

Code	Title	Credit Hours
CEC 291	Personal Leadership I	2
CEC 292	Personal Leadership II	2
CEC 391	People Leadership I	2
CEC 392	People Leadership II	2
CEC 491	Strategic Leadership I	2
CEC 492	Strategic Leadership II	2
Total Credit Hours		12

Additional Requirement

Students must be actively pursuing a bachelor's degree at Miami University to apply for the program and to receive the certificate.

Special Note: A student who cannot participate with their cohort in one of the courses above (other than CEC 291) for reasons such as an internship/coop experience or study abroad, should consult with the Executive Director of the Lilly Leadership Institute for an acceptable substitution. Substitutions also require approval of the Associate Dean for undergraduate curriculum of the division housing the student's primary major.