Center for Student Diversity and Inclusion

2030 Armstrong Student Center, 513-529-6504

<https://www.miamioh.edu/student-life/student-diversity-inclusion/>

Miami University's Center for Student Diversity and Inclusion (CSDI) is responsible for the development and implementation of programs, initiatives, and experiential learning opportunities designed to enhance the personal/professional development, retention, and overall student experience, of under-represented student populations at Miami University. In addition, the CSDI is a center of excellence and is committed to the preparation of students for leadership, experiential learning opportunities, and successful matriculation. In accordance with Miami University's mission, the Center for Student Diversity and Inclusion actively creates an inclusive, welcoming, and affirming environment by providing direct services, support, and resources to students. We foster holistic development through transformational learning opportunities, mentorship, and engagement opportunities that empower students to explore and celebrate their identity, engage in intercultural dialogue, and build leadership skills. The Center embodies a commitment to diversity/multiculturalism as expressed through, but not limited to, ability, age, ethnicity, gender, race, religion, sexual orientation, and socioeconomic differences and advocates for equity in order for all identities to learn, grow, and succeed.

Technology Support

Students can find technology and do-it-yourself support information via Miami's searchable, self-serve Knowledge Base (MiamiOH.edu/knowIT). IT Help also provides 24/7 support via phone (513-529-7900) or chat (MiamiOH.edu/ITchat). System status can be checked at MiamiOH.edu/ITstatus.

Web-Based Services

myMiami (mymiami.MiamiOH.edu), the University's web portal, gives students a convenient springboard for finding links to all their regular activities: Register for classes, pay bills, check email, access course materials, view University announcements, and much more. Students are encouraged to set myMiami as their browser's home page. Miami parents and family members also have a dedicated portal to view information their students have shared with them, including grades, financial aid, meal plan info, and more (<https://www.miamioh.edu/familyinfo>).

Student Computing and Software

Computer recommendations, walk-up support, and warranty repair assistance are available via the Tech Support Lounge, located in the Armstrong Student Center. All students can download free software provided by IT Services, including VPN, the AppPortal, and MUprint, from MiamiOH.edu/studentsoftwareguide. In addition, students can go to MiamiOH.edu/getoffice to download a FREE copy of the latest version of Microsoft Office on up to five different devices.

Printing

Miami provides print-on-demand services in many labs, libraries, and other locations on campus through MUprint. Please see the IT Help Knowledge Base for details.

English Language Learner Writing Center

King Library, 513-529-0097

<https://www.miamioh.edu/ellwc>

The English Language Learner Writing Center ensures opportunities for multilingual writers to become proficient users of Academic English and thus successful students. The Center offers free one-on-one consultations at the B.E.S.T. Library, Peabody Hall, 18, and the Farmer School of Business, 3064. For students who are unable to visit the ELLWC in person, we offer written online appointments. Through collaborative peer interaction, multilingual writers will learn how to identify and correct grammar issues, including unusual word choices, misused English articles, prepositions, tenses, and other errors. Visiting the English Language Learner Writing Center helps students enhance the overall grammar correctness of their English academic writing. To learn more about these services and to schedule an appointment, visit our website.

Global Initiatives

214 MacMillan, 513-529-8600

Global@MiamiOH.edu

The mission of Global Initiatives is aligned with Miami University's commitment to advance global learning. Global Initiatives promotes the dynamic, comprehensive internationalization of the University through the infusion of multicultural and comparative perspectives in global experiential learning, scholarship, teaching, and service. Support focuses on user- and constituent-friendly services with a commitment to efficiency. Global Initiatives acts as the connective tissue for all internationalization realms at Miami University: Leadership and structure; curriculum and co-curriculum; faculty and staff support; mobility; partnerships and fellowships; and institutional policy and commitment.

Global Initiatives administers a broad array of credit and non-credit programs and services that broaden the traditional Miami classroom experience. Credit programs are led by Miami University faculty and include local, online, domestic and study-abroad and study-away credit workshops. Non-credit opportunities include online courses and programs serving the wider community, such as the Institute for Learning in Retirement and the Global Partner Summer School.

Units include Education Abroad, the Miami University John, E. Dolibois European Center (MUDEC), International Student and Scholar Services (including the English Language Learner Writing Center in the International Student Center), the English Language Program, and Continuing Education. The Global Initiatives office is also an authorized passport application acceptance agency.

Graduate Student Associations

Graduate School
105 Laws Hall, 513-529-3734
www.MiamiOH.edu/graduate-studies/

The Graduate Student Association (GSA) represents all graduate students and promotes their academic, social, and economic aims. It maintains open channels of communication with other student organizations and with academic and administrative units of the university.

The association sponsors a Travel Assistance Fund to reimburse graduate students for travel expenses to professional meetings, conventions, conferences, and workshops.

The Graduate Students of Color Association (GSCA) aids graduate students by sponsoring academic programming, social, and cultural events from a diverse perspective. It also serves as an avenue of communication with the Graduate School and as a liaison between students of color and the university.

The purpose of the Graduate Student Pride Association (GSPA) is first and foremost to provide a safe and inclusive space for LGBTQ+ and queer graduate and professional students at Miami University. Safe spaces cultivate a community for marginalized groups and are thus vital to LGBTQ+ and queer graduate students. Furthermore, GSPA will represent and give voice to the concerns of LGBTQ+ and queer graduate and professional students at Miami University.

The International Graduate Student Association (IGSA) primarily serves international graduate students but is open to all graduate students. The purpose of this group is to provide a community for graduate students who are in the US for their advanced degrees. This group advocates for international students to university leaders and plans social events for international graduate students.

Housing

Campus Services Center
34 Nellie Craig Walker Hall, 513-529-5000
www.MiamiOH.edu/Housing

Limited on-campus housing is available for graduate students. Single graduate students may also apply to live in a residence hall or in Heritage Commons; provisions are the same for graduate and undergraduate students.

Heritage Commons provides apartment-style university housing for upper-class students. The complex is comprised of 108 fully furnished apartments featuring four private bedrooms, two bathrooms, a living room, and an equipped kitchen. Exclusive parking is available for Heritage Commons residents.

Many graduate students rent private apartments in Oxford or neighboring areas.

Contract and Deposit

All students living in university housing sign a housing contract, an agreement to pay room rent and board, pay a per semester residential fee, and pay a one-time $330 University Contract Confirmation deposit.

On-Campus Dining

Miami's Oxford campus contains various dining concepts including all-you-care-to-eat locations, à la carte locations, and convenience stores/markets in over 20 locations across campus. For added convenience, select locations offer Grubhub ordering for students to place orders ahead of time for either pick up or delivery via Starship robots. A variety of locations offer meal swipe equivalency options; students can select a designated item from our York Street offerings that come with a Miami-branded bottle of water and piece of fruit or a combo meal for one swipe as an alternative to dining at an all-you-care-to-eat commons location.

Miami is committed to providing an exceptional on-campus dining experience that takes into consideration student dietary needs, lifestyle choices, cultural background, and religious affiliations. For current hours of operation, menus and nutrition, and more information about dining accommodations visit MiamiOH.edu/Dining.

Howe Writing Center

King Library, 513-529-6100
<https://www.miamioh.edu/hcwe/hwc/index.html>

The mission of the Howe Writing Center is to ensure that Miami supports its students in developing as effective writers in college, across varied contexts and genres, and fully prepares all of its graduates to excel as purposeful and persuasive writers in their careers, communities, and personal lives. As part of the Howe Center for Writing Excellence, the Howe Writing Center provides one-to-one consultations for all Miami writers at all stages of the writing process, whether they are first-semester undergraduates, seniors completing their honors theses, or graduate students preparing their dissertations. Our carefully trained undergraduate and graduate student consultants offer both written online and live online consulting. We also support student writing through writing contests, writing-centered events, and research focused on student writing and consulting. Visit our website for more information about all of our programs or to make an appointment.

Museums

Richard and Carole Cocks Art Museum (RCCAM): 801 S. Patterson Ave., 513-529-2232

<https://miamioh.edu/ccca/art-museum/>

The angular limestone and glass Richard and Carole Cocks Art Museum (RCCAM), designed by Walter Netsch of Skidmore, Owings, and Merrill, houses the university's permanent collection of more than 17,500 art objects from all parts of the world by internationally known artists. Rotating exhibitions, public lectures, gallery talks, performances, and other special events are offered throughout the year, in person and online. Permanent galleries include Art History at a Glance, Global Perspectives, and the Charles M. Messer Leica Camera Collection. The RCCAM is situated within scenic Sculpture Park grounds. and is accredited by the American Alliance of Museums.

Internships and independent studies are available through several academic departments. As a teaching museum, multiple courses at Miami University are supported at the RCCAM. Collections not on display can be accessed with sufficient advance notice for teaching and research. You can also volunteer to assist with events and activities at the museum. Inquiries regarding group visits and from schools are welcomed.

McGuffey House and Museum: 401 E. Spring St., 513-529-8380

William Holmes McGuffey compiled the first four volumes of the Eclectic Readers while a Miami faculty member from 1826 to 1836. His National Historic Landmark house serves as a teaching museum for University and regional history, nineteenth-century domestic architecture and material culture, personal items of the McGuffey family, a rare collection of McGuffey Readers, and for the history of literacy, reading and schooling.

Science Museums include:

Karl E. Limper Geology Museum, 8 Shideler Hall, 513-529-3220
Willard Sherman Turrell Herbarium, 79 Upham Hall, 513-529-2755

Hefner Museum of Natural History, 100 Upham Hall, 513-529-4617

The mission of the Museum is to inspire global stewardship by exploring the connections between people, the nature of their neighborhood, and the world. We serve students of all majors through tours, classroom presentations, and special events. The Museum also provides opportunities to earn a range of certifications, conduct real-world capstone projects, develop practical skills through independent study, and participate in volunteer and intern activities that generate exciting resume lines.

Western College Museum: Patterson Place, Patterson Ave., 513-529-4400

Western College Museum houses a permanent collection of paintings, silver, and furnishings. Patterson Place, located on the northwest corner of the Western College for Women Historic District, also serves as the office for Western College Alumnae Association, Inc.

The mission of the Office of Equity and Equal Opportunity (OEE) is to promote fairness and justice, ensure that each member of the Miami University community is and feels included, and foster a diverse and welcoming environment that is equally accessible for all who live, learn, work and participate in activities at Miami University.

Ohio Writing Project

Department of English
302 Bachelor Hall, 513-529-5245
www.MiamiOH.edu/owp

The Ohio Writing Project (OWP) is one of the longest-running and largest sites of the National Writing Project. Founded in 1980, Miami's OWP values teacher knowledge, develops teachers as writers, and empowers teacher leaders to enact change in writing and literacy instruction in all content areas. OWP has offered workshops and inservice to over 100,000 K-16 teachers.

As part of the Miami University English Department, OWP supports K-12 teachers across the region and celebrates the professionalism, expertise, and talent of educators. Through workshops, school professional development, writing groups, book studies, and conferences, OWP provides a professional community for teachers based on shared writing, professional readings and practical teaching.

The OWP oversees the Master of Arts in Teaching English Degree, an innovative 32-hour degree focused on classroom research conducted under the direction of faculty advisors and OWP mentors. The OWP also recently created the Certificate in the Teaching of Writing, a Miami University graduate certificate program focused on teaching writing in K-12 classrooms.

As a site of the National Writing Project, OWP collaborates with K-12 teachers and universities across the nation. The National Writing Project, founded at Berkeley in 1973, is devoted to improving the teaching of writing and learning from kindergarten through college.

Miami is committed to maintaining a safe learning environment for all students and members of the university community. While Miami's campus is relatively safe, crime does occur on campus. Each member of the university community has a responsibility to contribute to the well-being of the community. Miami University Police officers are fully sworn and armed law enforcement officers, empowered to investigate alleged criminal activity, search and arrest as authorized by law, and use necessary and reasonable force to enforce the law and protect persons and property. They evaluate reported crimes, conduct investigations, and effect arrests

Annual Security and Fire Safety Report

As part of the University's commitment to maintaining a healthy and safe living, learning, and working environment, we encourage you to read Miami University's Annual Security & Fire Safety Report at <http://miamioh.edu/campus-safety/annual-report/index.html>, and includes, among other things, the following: Campus policies regarding: Safety bulletins and timely warnings; Emergency notification and response; Emergency procedures; and Reporting criminal activity; Information on crime prevention programs; Campus policies and information on sexual assault and interpersonal violence prevention programs, and procedures to follow when sexual assault, interpersonal violence, domestic and dating violence, or stalking offenses occur; Miami University's Fire Safety Report, including fire statistics in residence halls, emergency procedures, and safety advice for students living both on and off campus; Crime Statistics for the most recent three years at all Miami campuses; Campus policies concerning facility safety and access; Campus policies concerning law enforcement; Campus policies for reporting non-campus criminal activity; Campus policies regarding the sale, possession and use of alcohol and illegal drugs; and Information on drug and alcohol education programs. Each year, email notification of this website is made to all faculty, staff, and enrolled students. Written notification is also provided to prospective students and employees. Hard copies of the Annual Security & Fire Safety Report may be obtained from the Miami University Police Department at (513) 529-2223.

Drug Free Schools and Communities Act

In compliance with the Drug Free Schools and Communities Act, the Miami University Annual Security and Fire Safety Report also includes information regarding the university's educational programs related to drug and alcohol abuse prevention; sanctions for violations of federal, state, and local laws and university policy; a description of health risks associated with alcohol and other drug use; and a description of available treatment programs for Miami University students and employees. A complete description of these topics, as provided in Miami University's Annual Security and Fire Safety Report, is available online at: <https://miamioh.edu/campus-safety/annual-report/alcohol-drug-policies/index.html>.

Emergency Notification and Response

In the event of an emergency, contact Miami University Police at 911 to initiate the emergency messaging system.

Emergency Messaging System - Notification of an Immediate Threat

Miami University maintains multiple systems for alerting the Miami community about campus emergencies and will use some or all of those systems, depending on the circumstances. The Miami Emergency Text Messaging System is provided to all Miami University students, faculty, and staff. For guests and visitors to receive this service, individuals must sign up through the University Police at www.units.MiamiOH.edu/psf/police/emergencytextmessaging.
