

Community Arts and Cultures - Bachelor of Arts

The Bachelor of Arts in Community Arts and Cultures degree prepares students for a variety of careers in the arts and related fields through its focus on critical thinking, creative problem solving, community involvement, collaborative enterprise, and practical methods for communicating aesthetic and cultural values. This interdisciplinary program develops skills vital to building community through the creation, organization, implementation, and funding of community-based projects and organizations. Open to students interested in art-making as well as those looking to creatively and collaboratively advocate for and address broader social, cultural, and community issues through visual, digital, and printed media.
